MEMORANDUM

TO: State Board of Education

FROM: Jeff Zaring

DATE: September 27, 2007

SUBJECT: Regulatory Reform Committee

By the Board meeting on October 3, a date will have been established for the next meeting of the Regulatory Reform Committee.

The agenda is expected to include:

1. Department proposals on new special education rules following public input. Student services rules should be included.
2. Deregulation of curriculum rules following pattern established with proposed middle school rules.
3. Making accreditation an ongoing process rather than an event or interruption.
4. Getting out the message about the availability of waivers for schools on academic probation.
